It's not the length, but the excellence of the ACTING that matters...

This year there was a shocking change to the activities of the fall. Instead of the normal production, an Actor's Showcase took place. The showcase featured some of the hottest talent the school has to offer: Including Suzanne Plonski, Laura Martin, Danny Baxter, Taylor Marks, Josie Groning, Antonio Marchi, and Kelly Loughlin. The members recreated scenes from many pieces such as Alice in Wonderland, Huckleberry Finn, and Rumors. All in all the show was a huge success. There is a little secret that the audience was completely oblivious to. One of the actors locked herself in the dressing room. If you want to know who it was..only the cast will say or will they?

Suzanne Plonski (Sr.) as Katherine in "Proof". Suzanne was so dedicated to ensuring that the show was professional that she dropped the student director position to play a part in the performance.

Danny Baxter (Sr.) hanging out backstage before his monologue.

Below: Taylor Marks (Jr) as "Huckleberry Finn".

Above: Derek Lacey & Katherine Himes pose as the Virgin Mary and a shepherd. Right: Breanna Shannon, Elizabeth Murphy, Anna Kuhmichel are happy for the new birth.

Left: The angels rejoice for the time has come. Below: Mr. Schreiber, Maddy Sims, Hayley Bondi, & Kaytlyn Troyer pose for a second in between getting the props ready. Without the help of Lori Kitkowski, Mrs. Kuhmichel, Mrs. Neises, Marc Schreiber, Nancy Smith, Dawn Lacey, and others the Vespers "Still Pictures" would not be such a huge success!

noise*

4. Antonio Marchi poses after the play for his fans.

5. The Genie tells Aladdin that he has three wishes.
6. The Villagers await the news of what is to come.

5. The genie knows that he has no choice but to obey Jafar's orders. 6. Jafar, played by John Ward, is trying to convince Princess Jasmine that she should marry him and then rule the kingdom with by his side. 7. Josie Groning, Suzanne Plonski, & other cast members gather for a meet and greet after the show. 8. Iago played by Angela Flatt is always good for a laugh on and off the stage. 9. When Aladdin is Prince Ali he secretly wishes that Jasmine would love him for himself instead of who he is pretending to be. 10. Daniel Baxter shows why his charming personality made him a perfect fit for the role of the sultan.

Building International Relations

In October the French Club, the German Club, and the Japanese Clubs, along with the many foreign exchange students that are studying at MHS, all came together to enjoy a wonderful fall night. The students enjoyed playing on the playground, making s'mores, roasting hotdogs, and a nighttime hayride that allowed a bonding sensation with nature. By coming together, a sense of peace was promoted, while building life long friendships! What would the world be like if everyone could enjoy a great activity together despite their differences.

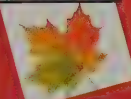

Page 16: 1. All of the students enjoyed the hayride experience and many of them found their inner child on the playground. 2. Making s'mores and roasting hotdogs was a highlight of the night...HMMMM MHS students hungry ...NEVER!

Page 16: 3. Herr Schreiber goofing around. Not sure what he was doing! 4. Laura Martin shows how well she makes international relationships by posing with the Marthe the foreign exchange student her family hosted from Germany. 5. The students loved the hayride at dusk. It gave them a chance to see all of the fall colors.

Page 17: 1. Alaynna Eberhart and Anjelica Dimitrakopoulos show that they are all smiles for the evening. 2. Students pose before getting off of their last hayride for the evening. 3. Laura Martin hangs around for the next hayride. 4. Getting just the right amount of fire is important to the taste. 5. Rebecca Reeder and Heather Fish enjoy relaxing with each other. 6. Everyone shows that making friends and peace doesn't have to always be serious. 7. Miss K is getting buried by the hay. Who could possibly have done that..... Schreiber any ideas?

Breast Cancer survivors, Mrs. Kroening and Mrs. Young, drop by to show their support.

Mrs. Piper and Ms. Nash get their pink hair extensions too.

Think Pink

Hanna Kitkowski knows that you can never be too young to start supporting breast cancer victims.

In honor of his mother, Mr. Barnhart gets his pink hair extension.

H A L L O W E E N

Mr. Breske lends a hand by carrying a door to the house.

Matt Reisdorf looks as strong as Hercules carrying that door.

Home Sweet Home

Installing a window is an easy job for Stephen Fairley.

No he's not climbing walls, Evan Ivaldi is just putting the finishing touches on the side window.

Cassi Natali sure knows how to hit the nail on the head.

Almost Finished

Katie Zeiger, Connor Egyhazi, Shelby DelRegno, and Cassi DeWulf are all smiles while they hold hammers in their hands.

JUST DANCE

Fresher Step

Not only did Joey Smith and Dustin Boyd give us flowers, they showed us the booty do, too.

Secret Symphony

Swimmers, Elise Knaack and Sinikka Roinila prove that they're just as good on their feet as they are in water.

HIGHLITZ

The girls of Highlitz; Cassie Robertson, Lindsey Hill, Dominique Cochran, and Kristin Papczynski danced to a mix of all different genres.

Kool-Aid-Jammers

With their funky colored outfits, upbeat music, and on stage antics Kool-Aid-Jammers, Noelly Scott, Brittaney Elsasser, Emilee Dean, and Cassi Wiseman, won crowd favorite.

Kate and Cess

For pom pom members Katelyn Slauson and Cecily Maes, dancing for a crowd is no surprise.

Alayna Eberhart

Alayna' Eberhart's interpretive dance stole the judges' hearts and made her this year's competition's winner.

Tasty Treats

With their cake's intricate detail and unique design, Jennica Ingles, Michael Roberts, and Michah Bryan become the cake decorating contest winners.

Matt Lehman and Trisha Kaczmarek keep it real while decorating their cake.

After a crumbly mess, Gavin Smith and Gibson Snyder came back and made a delicious cake.

Brittney Evangelisti, Miranda Ryan, Kirstie Hartley, and Kelly Campbell make a joke while decorating their cake.

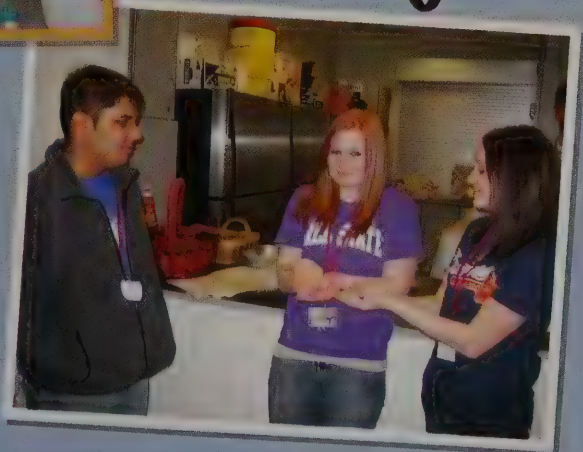

Arielle Hufkens gets messy while decorating her cake.

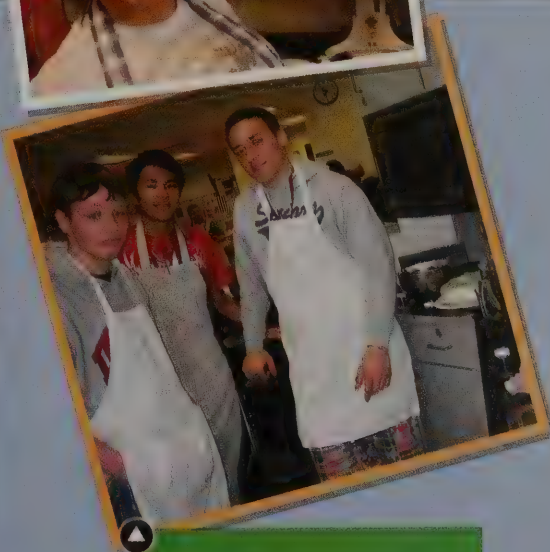

Jordan Wegner, Theresa Dickens, and Kalin Thompson's cake disappeared right before their eyes.

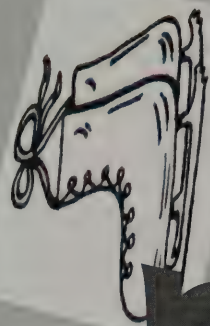

Katie Archambault, Ashlyn Sexton, and Carly Miller have fun decorating their mystery Valentine's Day cake.

Ryan Hodgson, Dai Kaneko, and Brandon Hoffman look spiffy in their aprons.

Ice Skating

Student Council members were constantly racking their brains to figure out fun activities that the students would get involved in. One of the things that they decided to do this year was go ice skating at Merrifield Park. It was a lot of fun for all of those who decided to brave the cold.

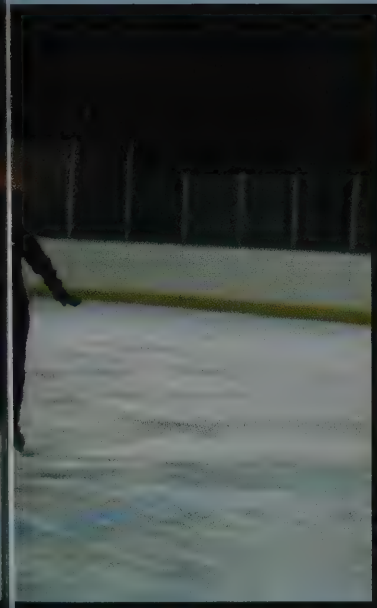

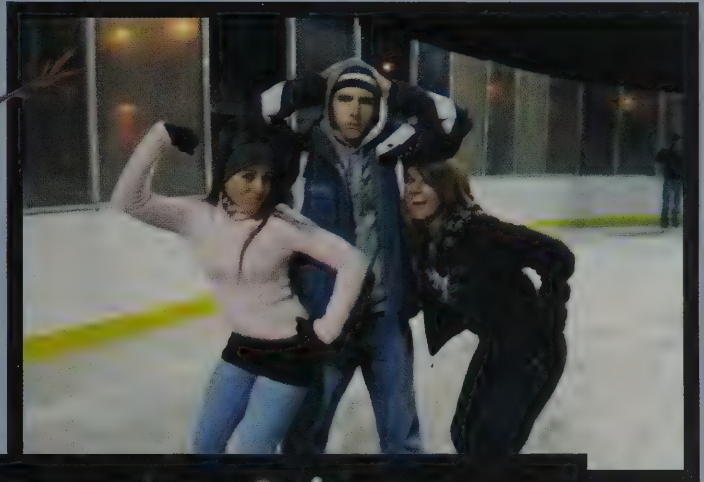

Apparently, Dustin Boyd needs a little help. Good thing Andrew Bauer and Sarah Patterson arrive on the scene.

Student Council members Ariella Ford, Kaleb Chamberlin, & Cassandra Natali show their stuff.

MHS students enjoyed the frigid weather by speeding around the rink. The guy above was too fast and therefore all that was left was a blur.

I've Got a Feelin' Everything's Goin' My Way!

MHS Presents OKLAHOMA

Adam Wojtysiak gets a lot of air on his jump shot! Making field goals is important to winning the game!

1. Javonte Young tries to get a jumper in. His form looks good and the opponent feels the same.

2. Ryan Benner looks to make a pass to get around the defender breathing down his throat. Is anyone open?

3. Steven Heatherly plants his feet and concentrates on making the shot! The crowd does not want him to hit his free throw so they yell in distracting voices.

4. Michael Curtis tries to free himself from the man to man coverage. He needs to be swift the defender is on to him.

Shelbie Jones fields a ball that was hit near the pitcher's mound and Lauren Johnson works to make the play to first base.

The batter steps into the pitch. Is she going to get it? Shelby Jones winds up for the release. Strike another one out!

Cheer Loud to Excite the Crowd!

Think big, Act big, Believe big, and the Results will be big. This is evidenced by the cheerleading pyramid that is towering above the crowd.

Mariah Jackson, Selina Valdez, Sarah Hall, & Kayla Schidler lead the way during the Homecoming Parade. Sarah Hall below waits for her next sequence to begin.

Dance First... Think Later!

Ashley Pallo holds her flag with precision as she moves flag and body as one.

Above Naomi Chambers and Cecily Maes move to the band's beats in style. Right Taylor Bradley loves what she is doing and let's it show. Far Bailey Patillo knows that the performance is all about the attitude.

Dorcas Yamoah gets into the starting block to prepare for her race. Below Lauren VanRassen arches over the bar in the high jump with ease.

All track athletes know that that they have to start early and then keep raising the bar each day in order to succeed.

Shot putters and discus throwers must use all of their strength to make the distance.

1. Being mentally prepared is one of the biggest assets in order to perform to your best ability. 2. Robyn Grenier pole vaults to new heights. (She got high and her parents were proud). 3. Sarah Louderback knows that the end is in sight. She just has to stay focussed. 4. Lauren VanRassen shows with her long jump landing why she was in the category of most athletic.

Sometimes having someone else set the pace allows you to hold on to all of your stamina until it is needed at the end of the race.

Boy's

TRACK

1. During distance races it is important to stay at a steady pace. 2. The runner uses his whole bodily inertia to propel himself through the air.

Nick Banke stretches before he makes his throw. Obviously this technique has many benefits...Banke broke the school record in the discus and guess what else.... HE WON STATE IN THE DISCUS!!!!

Above; Runners have to push themselves even when everything in their body is telling them they need to stop. In the middle, Stephen Fairley shows how easy hurdles are if you have long legs. Right, Justin Danaher performs the high jump so easily...it is almost as if he could do it in his sleep.

Every year MHS students participate in a "Retiring of Colors" ceremony. This ceremony is designed to show the proper respect to one of the greatest soldiers that the the United States has ever known...The American Flag. This year the ceremony was dedicated to our own Dr. Margotto. His many years of service to our country both in and out of the classroom give many reasons why he deserves this recognition. Thank you Dr. Margotto for all of your hard work and dedication. At last we allow these soldiers to rest.

Eleventh Grade

Just because you don't see one of your classmates pictured in Clubs, Sports, or Days does not mean that they do not do anything with their time. Take Crystal Bott for instance. These pictures show Crystal and her horse Dusty. Crystal rescued Dusty last year from abuse and starvation. When Crystal got him, she could count every rib, every vertebrae, and she could actually see his pelvis. In addition, all of his muscle was gone. He was literally skin and bones. Lastly, his head, which is petite, actually looked too big for his body.

Crystal nursed Dusty back to health with special food and love. Dusty looks great and is healthy again. Crystal has been training Dusty for this year's St. Joseph County 4-H Fair; where he will be showing him. Throughout the duration of their time together, the two of them have developed quite a bond and are making a great team. Crystal's motto in all of this is: Teams Really Do Come True!

Paper, Paint, And Crayons
Margaret Alliet

Eighteen years, a thousand fears,
Yet countless joyful times.
A tiny baby smiles just once,
Her Daddy's heart it binds.

A toddler cries with tearful eyes,
That only Mom can dry.
The little girl so cute in pink
Decides what clothes she will try.

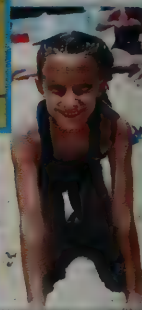

Her favorite pastime soon becomes
All paper, paint, and crayons.
Some years go by, she's growing fast,
No longer holds our hands.

She struggles some along the way,
We hope she feels our love.
The strength she needs takes all she has,
She's all we're thinking of.

The sun breaks through, she finds her way,
The clouds begin to clear.
And every day that passes now,
Each one we hold so dear.

She'll leave us soon to spread her wings,
A dream or two to find.
We know her life's forever bound
To these roots she leaves behind.
We hope she knows how proud we are,
How deep our love resides.
How much we've learned along the way,
Seeing through our child's eyes.

The paper, paint, and crayons
Through graduation years,
Will always be our most precious ones,
Despite the thousand fears.

Congratulations on all your achievements!

Love,
Dad, Mom, and Natalie

Steven,
It's been an amazing journey watching you grow into the young man you are today.
You have brought excitement and pleasure to our home. We were never at a loss for activities...and being bored was never an issue in our household. We are very proud of you and the way you have balanced sports, academics and family. The ability to do so has contributed to molding you into the young man you have become.
Always be strong to what you believe and to who you are..."Be your own man". We love you and have been blessed to be your parents. Never lose sight of your faith in God, He will help you to move mountains and will never leave your side.

Congrats and we love you- Mom, Dad and Renee'

Joshua,

You have filled our lives with such joy. We are so proud of you and what you accomplished while at MHS. All your hard work, dedication and sacrifices have paid off. Now you get to realize your childhood dream to wrestle in the Big 10 conference at Michigan State University. Always remember where you came from (once a Caveman - always a Caveman).

With much love,
Mom & Dad

Brooke,

WOW where did the last 18 years go? It is hard to believe that you are graduating high school. I remember the first day of Preschool. You jumped out of the car with backpack in hand, running up to the school doors just smiling ear to ear. I knew from that day on nothing would be unachievable for you. I was right, over the last 18 years you have accomplished everything you put your mind to. On top of all else you have been a wonderful daughter, sister, student and friend. You have so much to offer the outside world. We are so proud to be your parents. We are even more proud of the bright, beautiful young lady that you have become. Just remember that you will ALWAYS be our little girl and we will ALWAYS be here for you no matter what. Hold your head high, believe in yourself and follow your dreams.

We Love You
Mom & Dad

Sis,

You made it!!! I am very happy for you. You have been a GREAT sis to me. I am so proud to be your brother. I will miss you very much when you go to college.

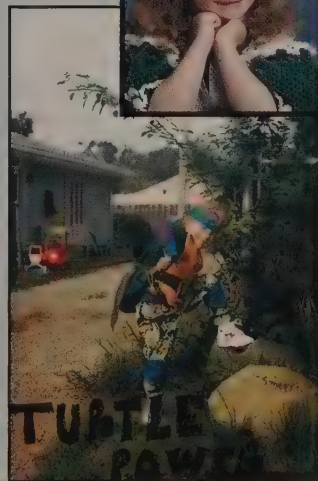

I Love You
Your Brother Nickolas

Good- Bye to all of the celebrities that were enjoyable.

All of the pictures that are found in the index pages represent events that happened in the world during the 2008-2009 school year. None of the images were meant to offend. They are simply representing pressing issues of the past school year.

Thank you to all of the faculty and staff that helped to make this yearbook possible. A special thanks to Mrs. Driscoll, Mr. Aldrich, & Doc Shriner. In addition, thank you to the yearbook staff for all of your hard work.
